

The Briefing

February 2021

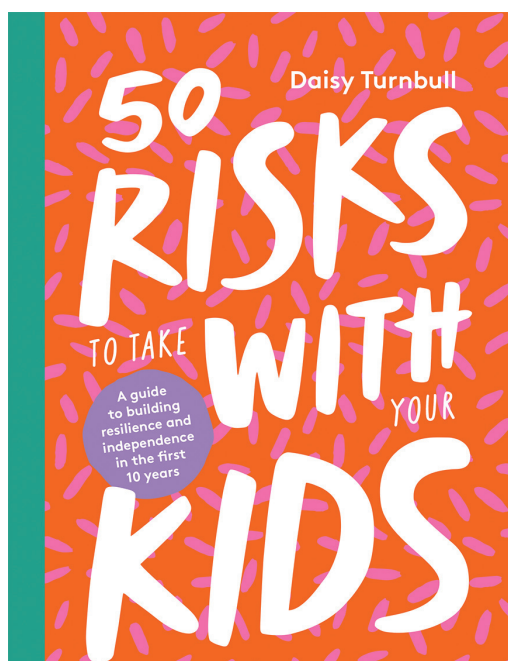

Featuring: Analiese Gregory, Daisy Turnbull
Jan Ormerod, Janet A. Holmes, Yamile Saied Méndez

Dear Booksellers,

2021 races forward for Hardie Grant with another month full of compelling titles.

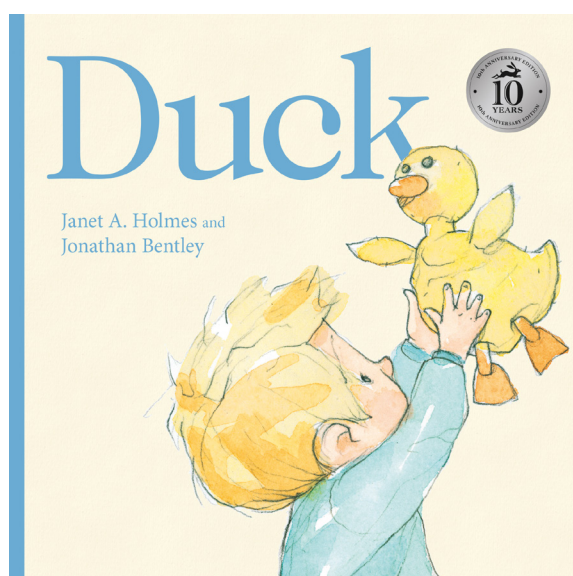

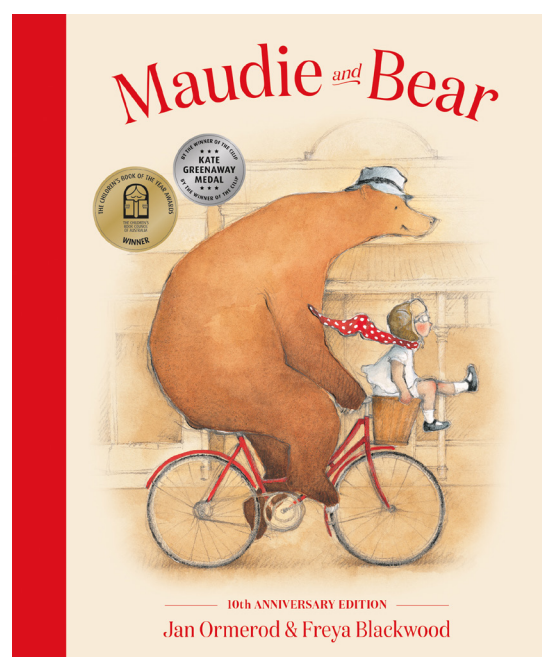

Analiese Gregory is a 'force to reckoned with' according to Gordon Ramsay. Delve into this young chef's food adventures at the bottom of the world in How Wild Things Are - an ode to Analiese's life in Tasmania in recipes and stunning photography. This book is not just a collection of recipes, it is a window into the joys of travel, freedom, vulnerability and the perennial search for meaning in what we do.

Daisy Turnbull makes her debut with 50 Risks to Take With Your Kids. In this guide, Daisy shows parents and carers how to nurture resilience and independence in their children. Because when we take risks with our kids, we teach them to be better adults. And don't miss Reese Witherspoon's Book Club's latest pick, Furia, a powerful #ownvoices contemporary YA novel about a rising soccer star in Argentina.

This month Hardie Grant Children's Publishing share some beloved family favourites in new formats. Celebrate the 10th anniversaries of best-selling Maudie and Bear by Jan Ormerod and Duck by Janet A. Holmes, with a special paperback edition. Join Caroline Crocodile in The Baby Swap, as she learns a warm lesson on sibling rivalry, or follow Daisy in her hilarious rhyming story Lazy Daisy, both available for the first time in paperback!
