

The Briefing

May 2019

Featuring: Lindsay Miles Mark Isaacs
Davina Bell Rebecca Huntley & Sarah Macdonald

Dear Booksellers,

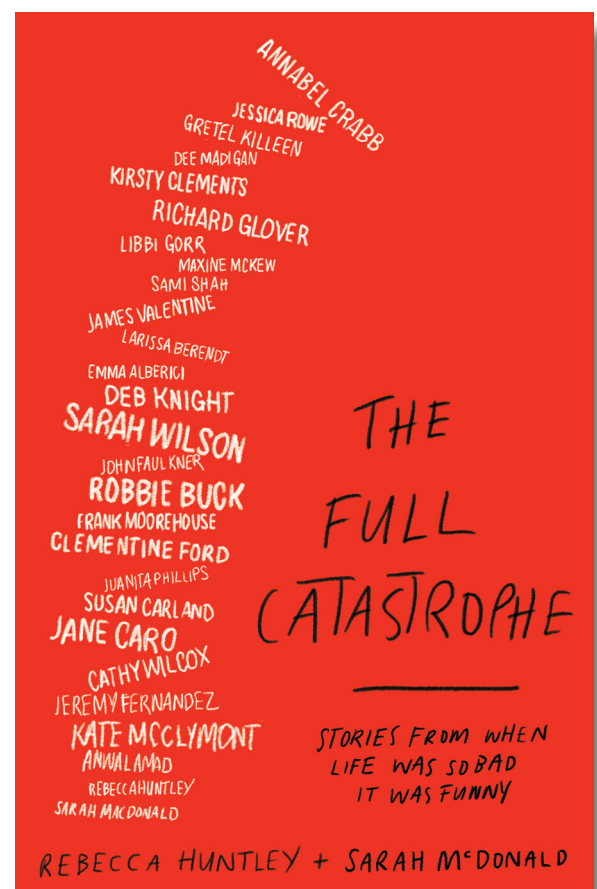

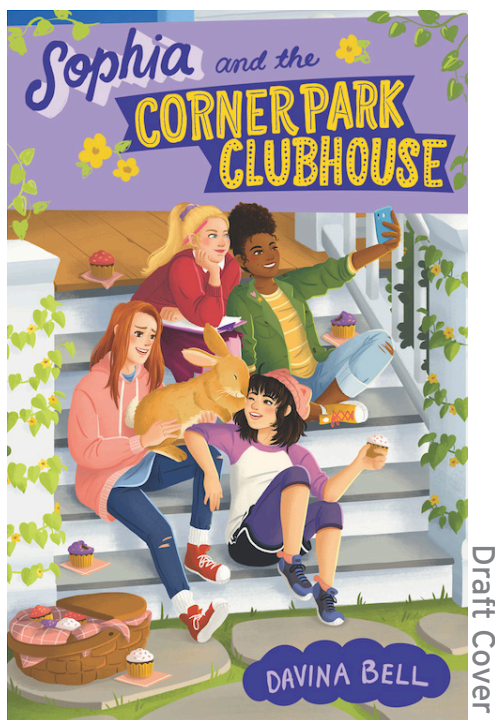

May is already upon us and with it comes a stellar line up of books from Hardie Grant Publishing.

Helping us to declutter for winter, Lindsay Miles brings us Less Stuff, a joyful guide that reminds us what's important in life and helps us to sift through the stuff that's standing in the way. The Full Catastrophe is also here with an amazing collection of well-known Australians sharing their moments 'when you think nothing could get worst'. Featuring favourites including: Annabel Crabb, Frank Moorhouse, Susan Carland, Marc Fennell and many, many more..

Hardie Grant Egmont brings you the highly anticipated first book in Davina Bell's brand new younger readers series! Sophia and the Corner Park Clubhouse is the sparkingly funny and heartfelt story about lifelong best friends Belle, Lola, Maisie and Sophia, who must save their favourite hangout - and their friendship - from demolition.

From Little Hare comes two celebratory lift-the-flap board books that promote diversity and inclusivity for little readers. Girls Are Pretty... and Boys Will Be... take the stereotypical phrases thrown at boys and girls and flip them - literally - with flaps that reveal bold, beautiful scenes that challenge gender stereotypes.

- HG
