

The Briefing

January 2021

Featuring: Wayne Quilliam, Lakkari Pitt
Adriana Picker, B.B. Alston, Amy McQuire

DRAFT COVER

Dear Booksellers,

Come celebrate the new year with our lineup of beautiful January titles.

Wayne Quilliam, one of Australia's pre-eminent Indigenous photographic artists, brings us Culture is Life, a stunning collection of more than 500 images and many interviews with Indigenous people across the country. This book is a modern photographic celebration of the diversity of Indigenous Australians.

Reduce your screentime and up your mindful game with a range of new puzzles and colouring books. Lakkari Pitt presents, Renewal, a beautiful puzzle artwork that represents light and an influx of positive energy. Adriana Picker allows us to colour in her stunning, intricate botanical illustrations in Where the Wildflower's Grow. And the Hardie Grant Travel team bring us two new destinations to piece together with the New York City Map and London Map puzzles.

Prepare for a gripping, fun and heartfelt fantasy by B.B Alston, as he releases his debut middle-grade novel, Amari and the Night Brothers. Determined to uncover why her brother Quinton Peters has disappeared, Amari must venture into a dangerous new world for answers, and try out at the secretive Bureau of Supernatural Affairs. With an evil magician threatening the whole supernatural world, and her own classmates thinking she is an enemy, will Amari ever find out what happened to Quinton?
