

The Briefing

July 2020

Featuring: Frances Chapman, Steve Wide & Michelle MacKintosh, Shaun Byrne & Nick Tesar, Helena Smith, Yasmin Zeinab

Dear Booksellers,

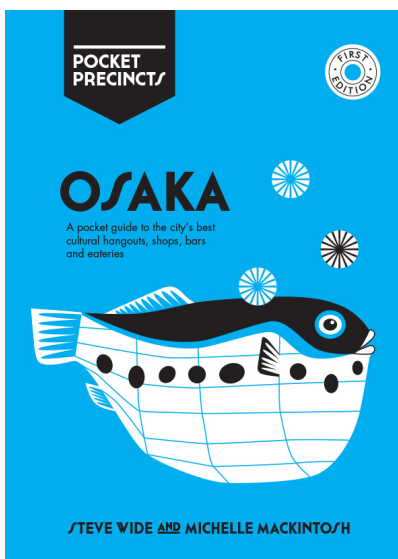

This July, we're taking our senses on a trip around the world from Asia to Europe to Africa and beyond.

Get acquainted with the Japanese city that knows how to party in Osaka Pocket Precincts. Crammed with all the tips you'll need to shop, eat, drink and explore Osaka, this new gem in the Pocket Precincts series is just what travellers and Japanophiles will need in their back pockets ahead of the Summer Olympics. Hardie Grant Travel also have two new additions to the beautiful and contemporary Curious Travel Guides this month, taking us on an insiders' tour beyond the souqs of Marrakesh and through the lanes of Copenhagen.

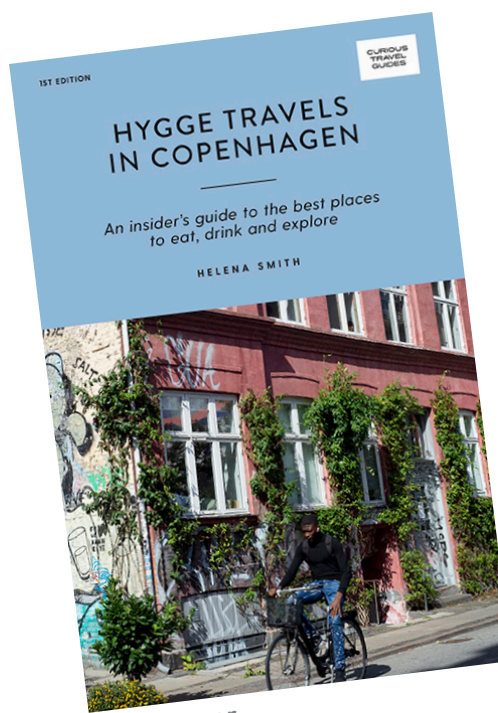

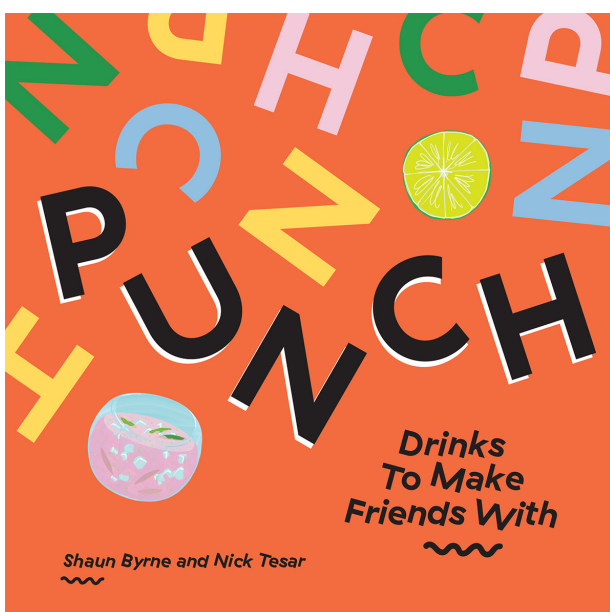

If that wasn't enough. Shaun Byrne and Nick Tesar are back with their divine cocktails for every occasion, taking inspiration from flavours and festivities around the globe in Punch.

From the winner of the Ampersand Prize comes Stars Like Us by Frances Chapman: a smart, swoony, own-voices YA novel about a teenage band on the way to the top - so long as they can hold it together. At its centre is sixteen-year-old singer-songwriter Liliana Donaldi, who's missing her girlfriend back home while also finding herself drawn to the band's charismatic guitarist, Carter. With her private life playing out on the world stage, she's drawn into a whirlwind journey that could make or break the rest of her career. This dynamic debut has all the heart of Nick and Nora's Infinite Playlist, with all the drama of Fleetwood Mac, and it's sure to be hit.
